THE VALLEY GOLF CLUB

COURSE GUIDE

The Valley golf course is an 18 hole Ellis Maples design nestled along the Haw River in Burlington, North Carolina. The golf course is a par 70 and features several twists and turns along the river and the natural wooded areas. The course is operated by the Parks and Recreation Department through the City of Burlington and is a great test of golf for all levels of play. More information about the golf course can be found at golfatthevalley.com.

Enjoy your rounds and thanks for playing!

HOLE 1

PAR 4 HCP 3

- 208
- 294
- 305
- 327
- 357

The first hole at The Valley requires an accurate tee shot that favors the left center of the fairway. The idea shot set up a second shot that is just over 100 yards from the green and short of the pond that begins 80 yards short of the green.

HOLE 2

PAR 4 HCP 1

This sharp dogleg left requires a right to left shot shape off the tee that leaves the player on the right center of the fairway. Be sure to take into account a slightly downhill approach to the green and stay below the hole on a front pin location.

PAR 5 HCP 7

- 417
- 475
- 502
- 554
- 584

Our longest hole on the golf course, this monster par 5 is a three shot hole for most players and players must stay left center on their tee shot and their approach shot. Beware of laying up on the right side of the fairway as may face some tree trouble on your next shot to the green.

Please use caution as you cross over Indian Valley Drive.

Yet another sharp dogleg left. River and woods on left, fairway bunkers, plus out of bounds on right makes an accurate tee shot extremely important. Bunker guards green on left. Green will generally slope right to left...

Finally a dogleg right! A well placed tee shot just left of the fairway bunker positions the golfer for the best approach shot. A back pin placement slopes away from the players, but a little long is an easy chip shot.

PAR 3 HCP 5

- 118
- 143
- 150
- 173

This is the most challenging par 3 on the golf course playing slightly downhill, a player needs to favor the right center of the green as all shots that hit the green will release to the left. Middle of the green is better than most on this hole!

- 343
- 359

The final hole on this side is a sharp dogleg left and players need to position their tee shot to a point where they have 100 yards in on their second shot. From this distance players should be able to hold the green, but the front portion of the green slopes drastically from left to right and away from the player.

TRICKY best describes this picturesque, but fairly short Par 5, which doglegs right. Beware of the river on the left side. In addition, a small creek crosses in front of the tee boxes, parallels the fairway on the right side, only to cross back in front of an elevated green. Bunkers guard this relatively flat green in the front, on the right, and in the back.
